

The Steward Discipleship House Rules and Expectations

- Absolutely no hanging out in the opposite sex's side of the house for any reason. Doing so will result in dismissal of the program.
- Everyone should be in his or her own areas of the house at midnight. There should be no hanging out with others after midnight in communal areas.
- No overnight guests are allowed.
- Pre-approved guests are allowed on selected days. Please let Travis/Angie know ahead of time if having guests over.
- Everyone is required to give 2 hrs/week of their time to Watermarks Camp and to a local church. Failure to do so will result in increased hours each week.
- While participating in the program you will have the opportunity to serve in different churches.
- Your attendance at scheduled house meetings is expected and required.
- Absolutely no drugs or alcohol will be allowed in the house for any reason at all.
- Rent which is $200.00 a month is expected and required to be paid on the first of every month on the Monday night house meeting to Travis/Angie. A $50.00 fee will be added if payment is not received 7 days after the first of the month. Failure to do so, may result in dismissal of the program.
- The gas bill and the electric bill will be divided up monthly amongst everyone in the house. Each person is expected to pay their portion on time.
- Should you withdraw from the program, you are still expected to pay your rent each month for the remainder of the time, regardless of your involvement. Extenuating circumstances will be taken into consideration.

- House chores will be divided among the house participants based on an overall agreement between everyone. The house is expected to be clean and presentable at all times.
- Everyone is expected to treat each other, each other's items and the property of the house with the utmost respect.
- Everyone is expected to treat each other as brothers and sisters in Christ while involved in the program. This means no dating or exclusive relationships of any kind with other housemates during your time in the Steward Discipleship House.

The undersigned hereby acknowledges that you understand the above expectations of this program and are in agreement to these expectations.
